

Manufacturer Definition in accordance with the Packaging and Packaging Waste Regulation (PPWR)

Definition of a micro-enterprise:
A company is a micro-enterprise if it employs fewer than 10 persons, and its annual turnover or annual balance sheet total does not exceed 2 million EUR. A franchisee can be considered a micro-enterprise if the franchisor does not directly or indirectly own 25% or more of its capital or voting rights and does not exercise control or decisive influence.

Note: [Company Name] is to replaced with the RCTP member company's name (e.g. IPL Schoeller, UTZ)

*: If the packaging is designed following specific requirements of a reuse system operator, e.g. in pooling, it is the user who decided on the design specifications. For more information, please refer to the RCTP manufacturer and producer table.
